GREAT BOOK SALES.—Early this month a valuable collection of rare old books was soid at auction in England. Among the number was a copy of the Mazarine Bible, printed on vellum, between 1450 and 1455, by Gutenberg and Fanst, and formerly in the library of the University of Mentz. This is the first edition of the Holy Scriptures, and the first book executed with mental types by the inventers of the art of printing. Dr. Dibbin, in his "Bibliographical Decameron," states that five copies only of the Mazarine Bible are known upon vellum, and the press nt one is claimed to be the innext of the five, being as clean as the day it issued from the press, and having GREAT BOOK SALES .- Early this month finest of the five, being as clean as the day it issued from the press, and having but one leaf which appears doubtful. It is estimated by an expert to be worth from $19,000 to $12,000. Among other rare editions of the Bible in the Perkins collections may be mentioned that of Faust and Schoffer, successors to Gutenising and Faust, printed in 1465, on vellena, with illuminated capitals, and valued at $4,000; the first German version, printed in the latter part of the fifteenth century, and valued at $500; and the English version of 1582, said to be the first edition of the English Bible printed in England, valued at $2,000. Next in importance to the bibles are the folio editions of Shakespeare. The first of these is said to be in excellent condition, with every leaf genuine. A copy of this these is said to be in excellent condition, with every leaf genuine. A copy of this edition sold in 1864 for about $3,600. Of scarcely less value are two wellpreserved works from the press of William Caxton, the first English printed, Higden's "Polycronicon" (1482), valued at $1,500, and Gower's "Contessio Amanis" (1483), valued at $1,000. Of his successor, Wynkyn de Worde, the collection contains an admirable example in the "Vite Patrum" (1495), worth prethe "Vite Patrum" (1495), worth upward of $1,300. Another flue specimen of early typography is the "Missale Vallisumbrosa," printed in Venice in 1503, and valued at $1,800.

Pen Docs.—A Philadelphia editor thus relieves his mind on a subject familiar to all newspaper offices—the inevitable Pub. Doc.: "We owe our thanks to Judge Kelley for the latest Patent Office reports. We already have sitten hundred of those interesting volumes in our little library, but they have been read and re-read so many times that we know every page of them by heart. This new volume came opportunely and gratefully on Christmas morning, and that night we gathered our little family around the fire and read it through to them. The affecting tale entitled "Improvement in Monkey Wrenches," seemed to touch every heart, and when we came to the climax of the little story about "Reversible Pieboards," there was not a dry eye between the front door and the stable. During the reading of the pitcous narrative entitled "Gum Washers for Carnage Axels," the whole family gave expression to boisterous emotion, and the nired girl was so excited that she lost her presence of mind, and went around to be mother's inadvertently with six ponuds of sugar and a butter kettle full of flour, and came home at midnight intolicated. We can never sufficiently thank Judge Kelly for the innocent enjoyment thus furnished us. The memory of that happy evening will linger in our minds very much longer than that hired girl ever lingers when she lights en a lot of substance which she thinks will suit the constitution of her aged parents."

Singular Cause of Fire.—A legal gentleman in one of our large Eastern cities, upon entering his office one summer morning, found the loose papers on his table just starting into a flame, which surprised him greatly, as there was no fire in the room at the time, wither was it amparent low if could be a supported by the country of the c either was it apparent how it could have ignited from any external cause, the windows being closed.
